A GLIMPSE OF THE CLASSES

Senior Class

Jack Fearnow, Athletic Board; Colleen Hudkins, Secretary-Treasurer; Larry Martin, Vice-President; Bob McDaniel President.

The embers of the Apache campfire are slowly dying; and as they flicker for the last fleeting moments, there is little time for a pause or a backward glance.

In the fading glow of the firelight, as we senior Apaches reflect upon the events of the past, we sense the value of experiences shared with one another. Our lives have been enriched by the association with our teachers and our classmates.

Our best wishes to you freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. May your high school years be as pleasant as ours have been.

Two Social Highlights of Our School Life

Junior - Senior Prom May, 1947

A Typical After - Game Dance

1948 In The Wabash High Classrooms

If you have any leisure time, you may spend it here in quiet study.

The boys shown here laboring in the machine shop may be our future industrialists.

Concentration and rhythm produce speed and accuracy, which are most essential to good typing.

Every girl learns something about sewing even though she may not become a housewife.

The girls pictured here may fall short of Rembrandt; nevertheless they are fine artists.

Row 3: Earl Potter, John Sager, John Thompson, Larry Gray, Frank Merritt.

Absent: Jerry Hodel.

Quill and Scroll

Rosetta Beamer, Jerry Rife, Mrs. Adams, Janet Dwyer, Frank Stephens, Helen Ford, Jean Ann Halderman.

The zealous hope of every young journalist is to become an active member of the national organization, Quill and Scroll. The requirements for this honorary organization are comparatively few but difficult to achieve.

As a reward for working diligently on the Orange and Black staff, four students this year were made members of the Quill and Scroll: Rosetta Beamer, Helen Ford, Jerry Rife, and Frank Stephens.

Hi-Y

Hi-Y Seniors

Hi-Y Underclassmen

The Hi-Y club, under the able sponsorship of Mr. Kauffmann, was one of the most active clubs this year. They started with their annual hayride, sponsored several dances, collected the largest Christmas food donation ever given by Wabash students, and wound up with the traditional Best-Girl banquet.

Officers were: Gene Crumley, president; Calvin Greiner, vice-president; Frank Stephens, secretary-treasurer; Jack Scott, chaplain; and Larry Martin, sergeant-at-arms.

Absent: James Bean, Phil Cramer, Floyd Fields, Jerry Hodel, Jerry McVicker, Bill Rife, Donald Ross, Bill Strickler.

GAA

The Girls' Athletic Association is open to all high school girls interested in fun and good sports. A total of twenty-five points must be earned each six weeks in order to remain in the organization. These points may be earned by participating in intramural sports.

This year's G. A. A. was under the capable leadership of Constance Purdy, the senior president; Carol Trisler, vice-president; Phyllis Carpenter, secretary; Sally Reahard, treasurer; Pat Smith, point manager. Miss Moreland is the sponsor.

Thespians

The organization that recognizes outstanding students in the field of dramatics is Thespians. This year for the first time a formal initiation was held for all new members.

Dramatics

An active and ambitious organization which always seems to have plenty to do is the Dramatics Club, whose major production this year was Gilbert and Sullivan's "Pirates of Penzance."

Officers of the club this year were: President, Larry Martin; vice-president, Anne Wiles; secretary, Jane Wimberly; treasurer, Gene Crumley.

Thespians

- Row 1: Carolyn Cross, Muriel Fisher, Virginia Caldwell, Jane Wimberly, Larry Martin, Anne Wiles, Gene Crumley, Rhoda Lightfoot, Peggy Burnsworth, Corinne Beitman, Colleen Hudkins.
- Row 2: Barbara Bloxson, Mary Anne Lux, Jeanie Clark, Joyce Touscany, Rosetta Beamer, Charles Dwyer, Robert Ply, Jerry Durnbaugh.
- Row 3: George Coon, Helen Pearson, Ann Gurtner, Robert Allison, David Martin, Jack Gardner.

Dramatics

- Row 1: Martha Pearson, Margery Martin, Joan Crumley, Mary Esther Kiefaber, Dorothy Nix, Dorothy Wasson, Vendetta Leland, Mary Ann Naugle, Doris Hauptert, Sheila Kelly.
- Row 2: David Watson, Gene Overman, Bill Ply, Richard Leonard, Joe Patton, Steve McVicker, Stewart Myers, Lemoine Collins, Galen Weaver, Don Williams.

Student Council

With Dick Carpenter as president and Mr. Eskew as adviser, the Student Council has tried this year to bring about more cooperation among the student body. Its first-semester project was the presentation of the Kryl Concert on November 4, and the second semester it sponsored a courtesy campaign.

Other officers are: Jane Wimberly, vice-president, and Mary Donna Shaw, secretary-treasurer.

Members of the Junior Red Cross Council engaged in the usual activities this year. They conducted the annual membership drive, sold tuberculosis tags, and solicited a substantial amount for the Community March of Dimes. Students who were ill or suffered bereavements received cards from the council. The newest projects were the purchase of a Nativity Scene and the making of posters for the Marion Veterans' Administration. Miss Hipskind is the sponsor.

Student Council

Row 1: Anne Beauchamp, Darrell Sanders, Miss Hipskind, Judy Sinclair, Nancy Bender, Doris Haupt.

Row 2: Jim Vrooman, Mary Ann Lux, Roland Holloway, Barbara Cooksey, Winifred Cales, Marjorie Graebner.

Absent: Mary Ann Rish, Mary Ann Lux, John Corso.

Tri-Hi-Y

Tri-Hi-Y, one of the most outstanding organizations in school, was organized in February, 1947, for sophomore, junior, and senior girls. They sponsored the Harvest Ball in November and gave a Christmas party for the girls at White's Institute. In December they helped the Hi-Y collect canned foods for baskets for the needy. The second semester the girls campaigned for money for the World Youth Fund and held a carnival, which they would like to make a traditional affair.

Library Club

The adviser for Tri-Hi-Y is Miss Moreland; president, Shirley Smith; vice-president, Joan Sundheimer; secretary, Jane Wimberly; treasurer, Mary Ann Lux; chaplain, Patsy Foust.

Smaller this year than in former years, the Library Club has striven to keep each member actively engaged in assisting the librarian with her routine tasks. These members have profited individually rather than in an organized group in learning proper library procedures.

Row 2: Sharlene Hornaday, Virginia Gray, Virginia Kuffel, Nancy Bramlett.

Camera Club

The Camera Club, under the direction of Mr. Miller, was organized for the first time this year independently of the Science Club. The members worked hard selling ball-point pens and taking pictures in order to raise money for photographic equipment which the club needs.

Jack Baber serves as president; Larry Martin as vice-president, and Virginia Gray as secretary-treasurer.

Inter Nos

Inter-Nos is composed of third and fourth-year Latin students. Their purpose is to arouse interest in the classics and provide social entertainment for themselves. This year they admitted deserving second-year Latin students as associate members. These members attend the meetings but are unable to vote or hold office.

Jerry Rife serves as president, with Frank Stephens as vice-president; Rosetta Beamer, secretary-treasurer; Jack Gardner, sergeant-at-arms; and Mrs. Adams, sponsor.

Standing: Jerry Durnbaugh, Stewart Myers, Mr. Miller, John Corso.

Inter Nos

Rosetta Beamer, Jerry Rife, Mrs. Adams, Frank Stephens, Jack Gardner.

M. F. F.

This year M. F. F. organized as a booster club for junior and senior girls, had the largest membership it has had in several years. At the close of football season, the girls served the traditional banquet for the lettermen and senior football boys. Miss Jones is the sponsor of the club; president, Louise Ford; vice-president, Anne Wiles; secretary-treasurer, Jane Wimberly.

M. C. L.

Among the clubs of W. H. S. is the M. C. L., the honor society. Its membership consists of students who have been on at least one of the two six weeks' honor rolls and on the semester honor roll of the same grading period.

Miss Young is the sponsor of this group.

Science

The Science Club, whose purpose is to promote extra-curricular interest in the advancement of science, worked on several projects this year in order to sponsor a trip to Chicago in the spring. Calvin Greiner serves as president; Darrell Sanders as vice-president; Martha Miller as secretary-treasurer; Bob Allison as sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Ritchie is the sponsor.

Debate

One of the most time-consuming of all high school activities is debate, sponsored by Mr. Tewksbury. The question debated this year was, "Resolved that the Federal Government should require the arbitration of labor disputes in all of the basic American industries."

In addition to its regular schedule, this group participated in a number of Junior-Town Meeting programs, which are sponsored by station WOWO.

This year's debaters were Karl Thompson, Jim Vice, Winifred Cales, Don Baldus, and Hughie Landis.

Booster Club

Sensing the need for a more wholehearted and concentrated cheering section at football and basketball games, a group of sophomore girls organized the Booster Club in November of this year. Beginning with its eighteen charter members, the club appeared in a bloc at many games, and the girls could easily be identified both by their white blouses and bow ties and by their effective and enthusiastic yelling.

Officers of the club were: Mary Esther Kiefaber, president; Joan Crumley, vice-president; Nancy Bramlett, secretary-treasurer. Miss Badger serves as sponsor.

"W" Club

All boys who win their awards in one of the three major sports—football, basketball, and track—are eligible to become members of the "W" club. The club functions under the able sponsorship of Mr. Tatum, football coach, and Mr. Lawson, basketball coach.

Officers this year are: President, Bob McDaniel; vice-president, Bob Yeater; secretary-treasurer, Larry Martin; sergeant-at-arms, John Corso.

Losing only two contests of the nine games scheduled, Wabash High enjoyed its most successful football season since 1942. One of those defeats was to the Plymouth Pilgrims, who became Conference Champs. The Apaches' second loss was to their formidable rivals, the Marion Giants.

Back of our successful season was the excellent combination of Tatum, Kauffman, and Lawson, our head coach, our assistant coach, and our scout, respectively. The efforts of these men, combined with the willingness of the boys to work as a team, made the 1947 season a great success.

Next year Coach John Tatum will be facing the serious problem of replacing the boys who graduate this year. To compensate for this loss he has a few returning lettermen who have shown ability and willingness to work. In spite of this fact, the boys who are graduating will be greatly missed on the gridiron next year. Mr. Tatum's problem is much greater than in the past years, for he is losing nine of the starting eleven.

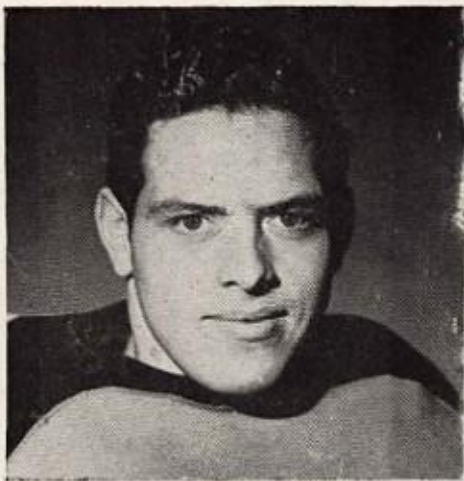

Among those graduating are Bill Bland,

Those who will return to bolster the next year's team are: Dale Thomson, Jim Hipsher, Jerry Hodel, Jim Harris and Lamoine Collins. For these boys and Coach Tatum, we, the seniors, sincerely hope that the next season will be a successful one.

The Wabash Scalpers opened their '47-48 basketball season none too impressively, falling to Central of North Manchester 38 to 35 in a hard-fought struggle. The Lawsonmen couldn't find the range against Kokomo the following week either, and they came away on the short end of a 38 to 18 score.

After an intensive drill on fundamentals, the Orange and Black came back strong against the next four opponents. Huntington couldn't stop the determined Scalper crew in the last half; therefore, they dropped a 48 to 38 decision to them. Wabash journeyed to Hartford City and came back victorious, to even the season's record to date at two even. Wabash continued on its winning ways with a 30 to 28 victory over Tipton. It took a 12-minute stall by the Scalpers to stave off a last ditch rally by the Blue Devils. In one of the hottest ball games of the year, Elwood fell 43 to 41 the following week.

In regular season play, the Scalpers dropped the next three to Rochester, Auburn, and Peru. However, on January 3, the Apaches entered the four-way tourney at Hartford City. They lost the afternoon game to the highly-touted Tigers of Alexandria but won the consolation affair from Hartford City Airedales, 40 to 36.

The conference race wasn't decided until the last game; in fact, the Scalpers turned the tide two times before by dropping the Plymouth Pilgrims in a grudge battle 46 to 44, and by losing the final game to Alexandria, giving them C. I. C. honors instead of Peru.

James Hipsher, Bob McDaniel, and Dale Thomson led the team scoring throughout the year, for the most part. George Coon kept things moving with his vicious rebound tactics; while Galen Weaver, the play maker, added timely points when they were most needed. Charles Dwyer, the diminutive guard replacement, along with Wendell Leland, top substitute at a forward slot, sparked the team in many close games.

Sectional time saw Wabash take the first game from Lincolnville 61 to 38. The LaFontaine Cossacks gave the Scalpers more trouble than was expected but didn't have enough to win. They fell 49 to 30, because of a last-quarter scoring spree by the Apaches. The Linlawn Pirates gave the Orange and Black another scare; but when the gun sounded, it was 59-50 Wabash. The winning column stopped here as they fell to the Sectional favorites, Chester, 51 to 39.

With Hipsher, Weaver, and Thomson returning next year, our chances look very good for winning our second CIC crown. Coming up for duty on the first two fives will be Merritt, Wilson, LaSalle, Williams, and Ogan, who will bolster the squad considerably.

"B" BASKETBALL

Wabash Papooses had a very successful season losing 7 and winning 11. However, the last defeat of the season to Alexandria enabled the Peru "B's" to be Conference Champs. Wabash ended the season in second place. If this is any indication of the seasons to come, Wabash can look forward to a bright future.

The Wabash track team of 1947 came through with a better than average season. James Parks, David Ford, Jack Sullivan, Darrell Sanders, and James Cairns, all returning lettermen, comprised the nucleus of the track squad.

Although the team was the smallest in years, it was also the most powerful for its size. Adding Jerry Rife, dashman, and Burton Jones, a sophomore speedster, to the line-up gave Austin Holloway his crack half-mile relay team. With Dalton Barnett and James Emrick in the middle distance, it was easy to get together a good mile-relay team. Dean Cassiday worked tirelessly in the half-mile; and James Bean, John Oldenkamp, Charles Dwyer, and Jim Hickey helped bolster the squad in their respective events.

The Scalpers started things rolling with a convincing win over Chester. Wabash garnered 77½ points to the Panthers' 41½. The following week the Scalpers met much tougher competition. The South Whitley Bulldogs journeyed to Wabash only to be turned away 63 to 47. The meet was undecided until the half-mile relay team clinched the meet with a walk-away victory.

Wabash continued its winning ways, topping Central Catholic of Ft. Wayne by ⅓ point. The Scalpers met real trouble against Marion in a triangular affair along with Huntington. The Marion thinly-clads, who couldn't be stopped, walked away with 76 points and the meet.

The only dual meet loss was an upset to Hartford City. The Airedales edged the Scalpers 56 to 53. Wabash had more trouble than was expected in taming Peru 57½ to 51½. This time again, both relay teams had to come through in the grand finale in order to win.

Burriss of Muncie proved too much for the ten teams in the "B" class at the Muncie Relays. The Scalpers grabbed third place, however, after a hard struggle with Warsaw. The Orange and Black squad found the going tough at the Kokomo Relays also. Here with 22 teams entered, Wabash nabbed only seventh position. The home team gained revenge over Hartford City in the conference meet held in Muncie. Though again, none were powerful enough to stop Burriss' bid for top honors.

The Scalpers walked away with the county track meet with 74 points. Chester and Central finished second and third respectively.

With only veterans Jerry Rife and Darrell Sanders returning, the track outlook may not be too promising for Coach Austin Holloway in '48. However, there are more than a dozen underclassmen coming up with possibilities, so we will just wait and see.

Cross Country

Miller, Leonard, Holloway, Merritt, Sanders, James Bean, Backus, Jerry Oldenkamp, Bitzel, John Oldenkamp, Smith, Ed Bean, Williams.

During the last four years cross-country, an old sport, has regained its popularity. Mr. Holloway undertook the task of coaching cross-country in the Apache camp, and he did a marvelous job. In the last four years the team has lost only 4 in 24 meets.

This year's harriers brought many honors to Wabash High, such as the CIAC championship; second place in the sectional; and twelfth in the state.
